Attention Flower Lovers.

The ladies of West Market street church Aid Society would announce to the public, especially to all lovers of flowers, that they have completed their arrangements for another chrysanthemum show next fall. They believe this will be a welcome announcement to those who remember the beautiful display of last fall; and they feel sure that with the co-operation of those interested in floriculture they can surpass in beauty and variety that exhibition.

While the chrysanthemum will be the principal feature of the exhibition they have decided to add variety and interest by offering valuable prizes for begonias, dahlias, ornamental plants, and geraniums; and in cut flowers prizes will be offered for chrysanthemums, roses, dahlias, and pansies.

Through the liberality of the business men of Greensboro and vicinity they are enabled to offer about one hundred dollars worth of prizes consisting of ornamental and useful household articles, articles of dress, and valuable collections of palms, evergreens, flowering shrubs, roses, etc.

For printed lists of prizes and for any other information in regard to chrysanthemum show apply to any member of the committee.

Col. Stedman Honored.

Hon. Chas. M. Stedman, of Greensboro, is attending the supreme court. He has always been popular in Raleigh and his friends here are glad to greet him. He has been employed by Governor Russell to appear with other counsel before the railroad commission next week in the governor's complaint that the passenger rates on railroads in North Carolina are too high. Colonel Stedman was counsel for all the railroads leading into Wilmington when he was elected lieutenant governor. When he took the oath of office he resigned all these attorneyships. This example is one which every public official ought to follow.—News and Observer.

SKETCH OF ENSIGN BAGLEY.

His Family Live in Raleigh Where His Remains Will Be Buried.

Washington, May 12—To North Carolina is accorded the melancholy honor of giving up the first life in the war with Spain, in the person of Ensign Bagley, of the Winslow.

He was well known and highly respected. Ensign Bagley was appointed to the Naval Academy in September, 1891, from the Fourth (Raleigh) District, North Carolina.

He graduated June 30, 1897, and was appointed Ensign on the day following. While cadet attached to the Academy he was assigned to make cruises on the Texas, Montgomery, Indiana and Maine.

Upon being appointed Ensign, last July, he was assigned to duty on the Indiana, but in the following month was ordered to the Maine.

He served on the ship until November 23d last, when he was transferred to the Columbia Iron Works for duty in connection with the Winslow.

When the Winslow, which was being constructed at that time, was completed he was attached to her and remained so until the moment of his death.

Ensign Bagley was a classmate to Ensign Breckinridge, son of General J. C. Breckinridge, who lost his life by being swept from the deck of the Cushing, and was one of the pall-bearers at the funeral of that unfortunate young man.

He was 25 years of age, was of athletic build and inclination.

He had made a great record as a football player at Annapolis, and was regarded as a "star man" during two or three seasons.

He was extremely popular at the academy and enjoyed similar esteem wherever he was known.

Worth Bagley was the eldest son of the late Maj. William H. Bagley, for so many years the esteemed clerk of the supreme court of this state. His grandfather on his mother's side was the late Gov. Jonathan Worth, so well remembered and loved by the older citizens. His brother-in-law, Mr. Joseph Daniels, is the editor of our morning contemporary, the News and Observer, while his brother Henry is the editor of the Times-Visitor, of this city. Two other sisters, Miss Belle and Miss Ethel, and young David, are also associated in this heart-breaking sorrow.—Raleigh Post.

SMASHED TO SMITHEREENS

San Juan Reduced By Sampson's Squadron.

DAMAGE TO AMERICANS SLIGHT.

More Arms and Ammunition For Insurgents Landed After a Sharp Conflict.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

St. Thomas, May 13—An advance report of the bombardment of San Juan de Puerto Rico to the New York Journal says that Seaman Witmark was killed and four of those aboard the flagship New York were wounded. A shell from the New York tore the roof completely off the palace of Governor General Machias, but he heroically remained at his post vainly endeavoring to rally the panic stricken Spaniards.

The Spanish torpedo boat destroyers Terror and Furor, which were reported a few days ago at Cadiz, have arrived at Fort de France, Martinique.

San Juan is situated on the northern coast of Porto Rico. It has about 30,000 population and was garrisoned by 3,566 regular troops. It is situated on a rocky peninsula rising out of the water about 200 feet. The place was strongly fortified, apparently, but the fortifications were somewhat antiquated. It is the best kept Spanish city in the world. The population of Porto Rico is 809,000.

FLEET AT MARTINIQUE.

London, May 13—Lloyd's agents at Martinique confirm the report that the Cape Verde Fleet is now at Fort de France, on the Martinique Island. This island is one of the Windward Islands or Lesser Antilles and is situated just north of Venezuela.

SAN JUAN SURRENDERS.

St. Thomas, May 13—San Juan de Puerto Rico has surrendered to Rear Admiral Sampson's fleet.

The fleet of Sampson is composed of the battleships Indiana and Iowa, the cruisers New York, (Sampson's flag ship), Montgomery, Detroit and Marblehead, the monitors Terror and Amphitrite and several smaller vessels.

SAMPSON SMASHED 'EM.

St. Thomas, (Danish West Indies), May 13—Sampson thoroughly smashed the defenses of San Juan. Leaving only enough of his fleet to blockade the port, he is cruising about the island with his iron clads on the lookout for the Cape Verde squadron, which is reported to be at Martinique, in the French West Indies. It is thought here that the decisive naval battle of the war will be fought today or tomorrow since the Spanish squadron cannot remain longer at Martinique. Sampson is reported to have plenty of ammunition and coal and the efficiency of his fleet has not been impaired by the bombardment of San Juan.

LONDON CONFINES SURRENDER.

London, May 13—The evening News publishes a dispatch from St. Thomas in which it is announced that San Juan de Puerto Rico surrendered to Admiral Sampson, of the American navy, last evening at 6 o'clock.

SPANISH TROOPS FOR PHILIPPINES.

Gibraltar, May 13—The second Spanish fleet, which is now at Cadiz, will act as escort to a strong military expedition, which Spain has determined to send to the Philippines.

EXPEDITION LANDED.

Key West, May 13—The transport steamer Guiselle successfully landed an important American expedition at Cabañas yesterday. The landing was effected only after a lively engagement with the Spaniards.

LANDING MORE ARMS.

Key West, May 13—The transport Gussie landed 7000 rifles and a quantity of ammunition at Cabañas yesterday under protection of the auxiliary gunboats Fred and Manning. The Spaniards fired heavily on the landing party but did no damage beyond wounding one American in the arm. The arms and ammunition were delivered safely to the insurgents who are massing rapidly to attack Havana in the rear so soon as the bombardment begins.

"Lurline, the water queen," who has just died in London, was the sensation of three continents ten years ago, at which time she had $50,000, every cent of which was made on the exhibition stage. Lurline was a Boston girl and her real name was Sallie Swift. It is said that she would have been alive today had she used water internally as well as externally.

LIEUTENANT SETTLE PROMOTED.

He is Now Assistant Adjutant General.

A telegram yesterday from Senator Pritchard to Hon. Thomas Settle announced that Lieutenant Settle's name has been sent to the senate for the position of assistant adjutant general with the rank of captain. This is a deserved promotion and will be good news for Lieutenant Settle's many friends here and elsewhere.

PROF. NORTON, PATRIOT.

Prof. Charles Eliot Norton, of Harvard University, with all his silken sensibilities quivering and his aesthetic soul mounting on gauzy wings suffered the following rush of words to the head:

"It is characteristic of the Americans to be trifling. * * They have acquired the varnish of civilized life, but their nature's have not been refined. * * The American people have been spoiled by prosperity. * * The American people are not well educated. * * We excel in nothing but science—we have no literature, no art. * * There are very few gentlemen in the United States. The Americans are 70,000,000 good-natured people, gifted with a fatal optimism, with no serious thought of any of the grave duties of life. * * They have no fine sense of honor; they cannot distinguish between what is honest and what is dishonest. * * I feel with Sir Horace Walpole that I could be proud of my country were it not for my countrymen."

And his countrymen could feel proud of Professor Charles Eliot Norton, if he would hang himself. Their good nature and the insignificance of this puling and emaculated pedagogical snob prevents them from helping him to so fitting an exit. Refining in the case of Professor Charles Eliot Norton seems to have been carried pretty nearly to the vanishing point, so far as any real manhood is concerned. If men of the Norton stamp are to preside in famous institutions of learning we shall probably never have any literature—and the stock of gentlemen will suffer a rapid and visible decline, since manliness is an essential quality in a gentleman. Professor Charles Eliot Norton should be transported on the toe of a number eleven boot (American make preferred) to a cell padded with rose leaves and furnished with his own published volumes and a plentiful supply of milk and water.

In the midst of the cannonade it is worth while to stop and remark that the stock of fools never seemed quite so large as at present or else more of them succeed in getting into print than usual. None of them seems to get, into the army at any rate.

All along, those best acquainted with Spanish methods, naval men among others, have asserted that her navy would not cross the Atlantic. It really seems that Sampson will have to go after his prey on its own grounds.

The necessity for holding warships in leash at Hampton Roads at this time is most deplorable. Surely warships are an expensive means of coast defense. It really seems to the layman that two thousand miles of good, solid ground that sells for a nominal sum ought to furnish a better support for big guns than a few hundred feet of floating steel and that it ought, under normal conditions, to be able to take care of itself. There is plenty of game for Schley's war dogs and they are anxious to be at it. Hampton Roads should be made self-defensible.

One comforting feature of the situation is that Spain has not the funds for carrying on a merely predatory warfare. She is on her last legs and must strike speedily if she is to strike at all. Hunting American merchantmen is too expensive a pastime for the Don.

Mr. Wm. T. Stead, editor of the English edition of that monthly dispenser of tepid hash known as the Review of Reviews, goes into seven well defined paroxysms of delight over the New York Journal. It is not the first time Mr. Stead's taste has run to saffron. But the Journal is at any rate better than hash.

The disabling of the torpedo boat Winslow and the killing of a large part of its crew should lead to a larger measure of caution on the part of the mosquito fleet. The torpedo boat is a fragile craft and should not be carelessly exposed to the enemy's batteries. The death of Ensign Bagley was a most regrettable feature of the incident.

Examining surgeons declare that ninety per cent. of the cigarette smokers who volunteer for the army are rejected. And yet it was only the other day that a noted doctor of New York proved that the cigarette is harmless. The amount of encouragement he received from the American Tobacco Company during the proving process was not stated.

No time should be lost in reinforcing Dewey. Whether or not the story that the powers headed by Germany are meddling is true reinforcement and supplies can not go amiss. We shall probably not hear the straight of conditions at Manila until the cable is open again. One thing however is well understood: Both Germany and Japan are eager for the Philippines and will attempt to seize them if occasion offers. Might alone counts in the Orient just now.

General News in a Nutshell.

The Duke of Sutherland has let his deer forest at Kinloch, in Sutherlandshire, to Arthur J. Balfour. The forest comprises about 40,000 acres and the rental to be paid is £1000 for the season.

According to an old docket in the possession of a Maine Justice of the Peace Admiral Dewey was once fined $25 for thrashing a drunken marine who had sought a quarrel with him during a visit to the navy yard at Portsmouth. Dewey paid the fine, remarking that it was worth that much to have had the pleasure of thrashing such a disgrace to the United States navy.

The publisher of the Delta Light House, printed at Greenville, Miss., is weary of running his paper on wind. In a recent issue he makes the following pathetic appeal: "Dear Sir, Madam or Miss: You that have not been reading so long and have not paid anything. If you should happen to see a blue mark on your paper, it means for you to take a tumble or little drop on your frame and send us some money, and you need not, think we are joking, either."

An unvarnished Partisan newspaper informs its readers that the Viceay was leaving New York at the end of the visit made us after the blowing up of the Maine, thousands of Americans stood on the piers and hissed. Brave Captain Eulate then ordered out his gig and was rowed to the nearest wharf. He leaped ashore, drew a pistol and shouted: "I will blow out the brains of the first man that hisses." The dreamer who wrote the article referred to, adds that for half an hour the captain paced up and down the pier, waiting for hisses from the crowded multitude, but in vain.

On the day of the naval battle at Manila there was but one Geo. Dewey; now, though two weeks have not elapsed since the news of the victory reached us, there are George Deweys in all parts of the country. And the crop of American baby boys so named show no sign of curtailment.

A Tallahassee, Fla., paper says that while two acres of land in that vicinity planted to cotton yield a crop worth but $20 at prevailing prices, the same space planted in cabbages would at the present price of cabbages, bring from $120 to $140. The moral is obvious.

When the new Marquis of Exeter shall have taken his seat in the House of Lords he will be one of the youngest members of that august assembly. Excluding the dozen or so peers who are minors, Lord Exeter will have only two juniors in the upper house—Lord Hindlip, who succeeded to the title last year, and the Duke of Manchester.

Not on Your Tin!

Mr. A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, will perhaps be the republican nominee for solicitor to succeed W. P. Bynum, republican, present incumbent. Brooks is strong, clean and able and will doubtless be a winner.—Danville Frago.

Brother Fairbrother has laid the wrong pig by the ear. Mr. Brooks' democracy stands six feet one in its stocking feet. The "strong, clean and able" part hits the bull's eye, however, and democrats will not forget that.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head of its class. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

The Lord and Joe Wheeler.
The absence of General Wheeler from the capitol since his elevation to the rank of major general recalled to a gentleman at the capitol yesterday a conversation that occurred in the speaker's room a few months ago. It was about the time that the death of Judge Holman, of Indiana, and Seth L. Milliken, of Maine, occurred.
Among the party in the speaker's room was General Wheeler, whose diminutive stature and agile movements are hardly less remarkable than his military record as a cavalry leader in the Confederate army. Some one remarked that the veteran members of the house were dropping out, one by one, and another added: "General Wheeler is still with us." "Yes," drawled Mr. Reed, "but the Almighty has never yet been able to put his finger on Joe in any one place."—Washington Post.

Something to Know.
It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

They will leave Camp Grimes soon to meet the treacherous Spaniards in battle. Before they do so let every one avail himself of this opportunity to encourage them by his presence and bid them "God Speed" in their glorious sacrifice for a down-trodden people. ## SHOOTING OF SCHLEY'S MEN.

110 Shots Hit a Barrel and the Diminutive Flagstaff Attached to It.

Fort Monroe, Va., May 11—There was business all day on the ships of Commodore Schley's squadron. It began in the morning with fire quarters, and after that was over there was collision drill. Then they went at sub-calibre target practice, and kept that up until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The New Orleans had a lot of practice with her 1-pounders.

The officers of the ships, and particularly Commodore Schley, are greatly pleased with the armament of the new cruiser. She was built to give a good account of herself in a fight, and she is prepared to fulfill expectations. Already her crews have attained remarkable proficiency in marksmanship. Yesterday they shot away a target, and today they filled another full of holes.

The Brooklyn made the star performance, however. What was left of a target was brought in after one day's practice. It consisted originally of a barrel with a staff set in the head, and a small red flag on the staff. When it was examined it showed 110 hits, 24 of them being in the staff.

Miss Fay Fuller, who has just been appointed harbor mistress of Tacoma is the only woman in the world holding such a place. She became prominent in the west a number of years ago as the first woman to ascend Mt. Tacoma.

So Tired! So Tired!
Chronic Dyspepsia!

For ten years I had been a severe sufferer from chronic dyspepsia, which was pronounced incurable. I was completely run down, and in the summer season was not able to do anything and spent a great part of the time lying down. I could not touch meat of any kind, or any solid food whatever, as I could not digest it at all and had to live on crackers and light diet. I was very nervous, would have severe nervous spells, and could not get any natural sleep. I was so restless. I suffered all the time from chronic dysentery, which kept me weakened down. That was my condition when I determined as a last resort to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I had tried so many treatments and so many patent medicines without benefit that I had no faith in anything and had almost made up my mind not to try another thing, when Mrs. Person came to my house last April and induced me to try her Remedy. I bought a dozen bottles. Felt no relief whatever until I was on the fourth bottle, when I knew I was getting better. I became stronger, got so I could sleep well and there was no necessity for me to lie down in the day time. I took twenty-two bottles before I stopped. My digestion is now perfect, and I can eat meat, vegetables, and anything else I want, and as much as I want. When I commenced the Remedy I weighed 98 pounds, now I weigh 115 pounds. Dysentery perfectly cured, and it is all owing to Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. It is everything claimed for it.

PUBLISHED BY ODELL HARDWARE CO.

EDITORIAL.

We have had the cool wet spell in May. We may now expect the summer season to begin shortly, and to continue without interruption.

We do not think there is any reason for dreading the warm weather. There are a great many enjoyments peculiar to the spring and summer, without which life would be exceedingly monotonous. Picnics will soon be on hand.

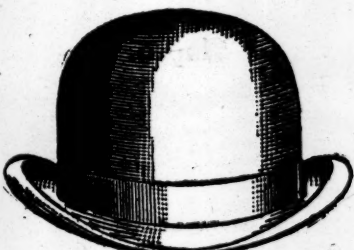

By the way, have you secured a BICYCLE? The roads will soon be in fine condition for riding. Comfort, pleasure and health demand that you take advantage of the low prices which we are now offering, and supply yourself with a wheel. The Crawford has made a record of which any wheel might well be proud. The price is exceedingly low.

If you wish an Ice Cream Freezer, a refrigerator, or any other summer specialties, do not forget that we are Headquarters.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The above picture is very suggestive. What is more pleasant on the evening of a warm day, than to spray your grass and flowers: and if you should accidentally get the hose turned in the wrong direction, the victim will not suffer so keenly as this would indicate.
